In her brilliant just released new novel, HOUSE RULES, Jodi brings us into the world of Jacob Hunt, an eighteen-year-old with a high-functioning form of autism. In today's world, where 1 out of 100 children is diagnosed on the autism spectrum, HOUSE RULES is a glimpse inside an isolated world increasingly seen, yet marginally understood. Vivid, well-researched and an emotionally powerful novel!

Sunday, March 7th at 3:30pm
